ANNUAL
THEATRE PARTY

DE WOLF HOPPER

Shubert Theatre

APRIL 18, 1911

Afternoon Matinee . . . 2 o'clock
Evening Performance . . 8 o'clock

Illustrious Nobles :

Your committee feels that it has been specially fortunate this year in securing as the attraction for the annual theatre party, America's foremost comic opera comedian, DeWolf Hopper, in "A Matinee Idol," the song comedy success in which our brother has found such favor throughout the country during the past season. This is undoubtedly the best entertainment ever provided for a Shriner theatre party.

As you are already well aware the date for the theatre party is Tuesday, April 18, at the Shubert Theatre, but we wish you to specially bear in mind that we have been able to arrange for not only an evening performance on that date, but for an extra matinee performance. This has been done because there are always so many Shriners from out of town who find it inconvenient, in fact impossible, to join us at the evening's entertainment. By this arrangement of a special afternoon performance, we have exactly the same production, twice the capacity, and we can divide ourselves up between the afternoon and the evening performance as best suits our individual convenience.

Such a capital arrangement would not have been possible, were it not for the fact that DeWolf Hopper is a Shriner himself, a member of Mecca Temple of New York, and he is very glad to do anything in his power to see that Shriners enjoy themselves. He has appeared for Shriners in other cities, but it has never happened before that his attraction was visiting Boston at a time when we could avail ourselves of the rare opportunity of basking in the sunshine of his wonderful fun-making proclivities.

"A Matinee Idol" is one of those big musical productions full of fun, lots of pretty girls, a riot of brilliant costuming, gorgeous scenic effects, delirious dancing, the catchiest sort of music. The music is by Silvio Hein. In the cast are such favorites as Edward Earle, Dorothy Webb, Matt Hanley, Trixie Moore, Meta Bomar, J. E. Wheeler, Georgie Mack, Fred Hornby, Myrtle Gilbert and Miss Louise Dresser.
